

HAZARD POST OFFICE
Wild Rose Prairie, near Deer Park
Spokane County, Washington.

HABS No.-Wash.28

HABS
WASH
32-DEP.V
1-

PHOTOGRAPHS
WRITTEN HISTORICAL AND DESCRIPTIVE DATA
District of Washington

Historic American Buildings Survey
Louis Baeder, District Officer
1615 Smith Tower, Seattle, Washington.

HARS
WASH
32-DEPT

HAZARD POST OFFICE

Wild Rose Prairie near Deer Park

Snohomish County, Washington

OWNER:-- Mr. Roland Robinson Hazard.

DATE OF ERECTION:-- 1884

BUILDER:-- Mr. Roland Robinson Hazard.

PRESENT CONDITION:-- The cabin is in fair condition and will doubtless be preserved as long as the Hazard family own the property, as at present.

NUMBER OF STORIES:-- Two stories with no basement.

MATERIALS OF CONSTRUCTION:-- Black pine was used throughout.

OTHER EXISTING RECORDS:-- The cabin was made a Post Office in 1885, and was used as a store and Post Office, until 1904, and was officially known as Hazard, being so shown on the map of Washington in an atlas of 1906.

Historic data obtained from Mr. Roland Robinson Hazard, son of the builder, and present owner.

MEASURED AND DRAWN:-- September and October, 1936.

Author: Louis Bacon

District Officer, WPA.